127. The Court granted this motion, and Defendant was required to respond by January 31, 2022. Dkt. No. 128. On January 31, 2022, Defendant filed a second motion requesting extension of time to file. Dkt. No. 133. The Court granted this motion, and Defendant was required to respond by February 17, 2022. Dkt. No. 134. On February 17, 2022, Defendant requested one additional day to file, Dkt. No. 138; the Court granted this extension, Dkt. No. 139. On February 18, 2022, Defendant filed a motion to dismiss. Dkt. No. 140.¹ This motion was granted in part and denied in part on September 29, 2022. Dkt. No. 191. Thus, on October 17, 2022, Defendant filed the instant motion for extension of time to file answer. Dkt. No. 203.

The motion requested until October 31, 2022 to file an answer.² Id. It noted that Plaintiffs and the co-Defendants agreed to the extension. Id.

Accordingly, the premises considered, and the Court otherwise being duly advised, it is hereby ORDERED:

1. Defendants' Motion for Extension of Time to Answer, Dkt. No. 203, is GRANTED.
2. This Order is issued nunc pro tunc to October 17, 2022.

¹ Defendant was directed to refile the motion and memorandum in support separately; the motion was refiled on March 16, 2022. Dkt. No. 146.

² The motion did not give any reason for the requested extension. Because the Court may only grant extension for good cause, it typically requires a showing of the same. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 6(b). Moreover, parties are not to assume that the Court will grant their motion, and should not sua sponte follow their own requested deadlines. However, in this instance, where Defendant filed the answer by the requested extension deadline, Dkt. No. 206, the case has proceeded, and it would be in the interests of judicial economy to grant the motion, the Court will excuse these instances of noncompliance.
